VISIT OF OLD-QUEBEC by walk

Duration 2 hours

You will be able to discover the only fortified city northern Mexico. Explore and learn more on the history and culture of Quebec City, declared World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1985.

Your visit will start at Place Royal, where Samuel de Champlain, Father of New France, established his first residence. Visit the Petit Champlain, a pedestrian street known for its specialty shops, art galleries and souvenir shops.

Afterwards, your guide will take you Upper town to visit the Dufferin Terrace and the Château Frontenac. You will have free time to visit this emblematic place or to take pictures on the terrace Dufferin.

Afterwards, you will go to the Parliament and then you will discover the Place d'Armes, the Notre-Dame Basilica and the Séminaire de Québec.
